There are three levels of cover:

- Disability cover. (See Section 5)

Cooling-off period

We hope that You will be happy with Your insurance policy. However, if this policy does not meet Your needs You have 30 days from the date You received Your policy documents to cancel the policy and get a full refund. (We will not give You a refund if You have made a claim or an incident has happened where You could make that claim.)

If You have any queries regarding Your policy, please call getMY.com on 0845 026 0084. For Your protection calls may be recorded and may be monitored.

Section 3 The insurance contract

This policy is a legal contract between You and Us. The policy, Your schedule and any endorsements make one document and You should read them together.

Your part of the contract is based on the information You gave Us when You completed Your application.

Our part of the contract is that We will provide the cover set out in this policy, provided You pay the premium and meet all the conditions.

If You do not meet Your part of the contract, We may turn down a claim or You may find that You do not have any cover.

The laws of England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland allow us both to choose the law which will apply to this contract. We have chosen Scottish law to apply if You live in Scotland and the law of England and Wales to apply if You live elsewhere in the United Kingdom. The language used in this policy and any communications relating to it will be in English.

The insurer is Great Lakes Reinsurance (UK) PLC. Registered in England and Wales No 2189462. Registered Office at: Plantation Place, 30 Fenchurch Street, London, EC3M 3AJ. Authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

The policy is administered on behalf of the insurer by FirstAssist Insurance Services Limited, Registered in England & Wales No 04617110. Registered Office at Marshall's Court, Marshall's Road, Sutton, Surrey, SM1 4DU. Authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

This policy is issued for an initial period of one month from the Start Date and will automatically continue on payment of each month's premium as it falls due until cover under Your policy terminates or is cancelled, as described in Section 9.

Section 4 Eligibility

You are eligible for this policy provided that on the Start Date of the policy You:

- have a Mortgage that is not in arrears;
- are aged 18 or over and under 65;
- are living and working permanently in the United Kingdom;
- are in Employment;
and (If You select Disability & Unemployment Cover or Unemployment Cover)
- are not aware of any impending unemployment, whether or not You have received official notice, and Your employer has not announced any job losses, departmental or company restructure, or a merger with another company.

If You select Disability & Unemployment Cover or Unemployment Cover, and You are a Contract Worker You are still eligible for cover however exclusions (vi) and (vii) in Section 6 may apply.

Section 5 Disability cover

This Section only applies if Your schedule shows You have selected either Disability cover or Disability and Unemployment cover

What We will cover

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 30 day Waiting Period

If You cannot Work for at least 60 days in a row, because of Disability, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 61st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 60 day Waiting Period

If You cannot Work for at least 90 days in a row, because of Disability, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 91st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 90 day Waiting Period

If You cannot Work for at least 120 days in a row, because of Disability, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 121st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 120 day Waiting Period

If You cannot Work for at least 150 days in a row, because of Disability, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 151st day.

We will continue to pay Monthly Benefit for each further full Month of Your Disability until:

- You return to Active Employment;
- We have paid the Maximum Monthly Benefits; or
- cover ends as described in Section 9;

whichever happens first.

For example

Customer A has selected a 90 days Waiting Period with a monthly benefit of £500, and was unable to work for 185 days due to sickness. The first 90 days are not covered. They then need to be off work for a further 30 days in order to claim benefit for that month, and a further 30 days to claim each of the following months benefit. They would receive benefits for the three whole months they were off work, totalling £1,500. They would not receive benefit for the remaining five days.

If there are less than three consecutive months of Active Employment between two periods of Disability, We will classify those two periods as one continuous period of Disability and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. We will not pay Benefit for the time You were working between the two periods. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

For example

Customer B selected a policy with a maximum of 12 monthly benefits. They have received three monthly benefits and returned to work, but within three months they are unable to work again due to disability, either the same cause or a new one. This is treated as a continuation of the previous claim. They will not have to go through the waiting period before benefits become payable again. As they have already received three monthly benefits for the earlier period, the maximum payable for the second period will be nine monthly benefits.

If a period of Disability is immediately followed by a period of Unemployment or Caring or a period of Unemployment or Caring is immediately followed by a period of Disability, We will classify these two periods as one continuous claim and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

After the Maximum Monthly Benefits have been paid for any period of Disability, further claims for Disability will only be considered under the following circumstances:

- If the reason for claiming is as a result of the same cause, there must have first been six months Active Employment.
- If the reason for claiming is as a result of a new cause, there must have first been one months Active Employment.

You cannot claim for Disability and Unemployment or Caring at the same time.

If You qualify for a Disability claim but continue to receive an income from Your Employment, the Monthly Benefit will be reduced so that the total of gross income received from Your Employment and the Benefits payable, does not exceed 50% of Your Gross Monthly Income.

What We will not cover

This policy does not cover any period of Disability:

- i) which occurred before the Start Date;
- ii) resulting from any Chronic Condition from which You knowingly suffered on or before the Start Date;
- iii) as a result of any medical condition for which treatment had been given or diagnosis had been made or investigations commenced during the 12 months immediately before the Start Date and which comes back within 24 months after the Start Date. (This exclusion will not be applied after 24 months have passed without treatment or advice for that medical condition.);
- iv) resulting from spinal and related conditions unless there is radiological medical evidence of abnormality confirmed by a Doctor;
- v) resulting from stress, anxiety and depression, unless diagnosed by a member of the Royal College of Psychiatrists;
- vi) which is a result of intentional self-inflicted injuries;
- vii) which is a result of taking alcohol or drugs, (unless they are taken under the direction of a Doctor and are not for the treatment of drug addiction);
- viii) as a result of You being detained in prison under the direction of a court of law. (This will not apply if You are later acquitted.); or
- ix) arising from war (whether declared or not), military duty in peacekeeping operations outside the United Kingdom, invasion, riot as an active participant, revolution or any similar event.

For the purposes of exclusions ii) and iii) above, if You:

- for the 6 continuous months immediately before the Start Date;
 - held a policy with another insurer providing Disability cover, that was replaced by this policy;
- and
- under which You had not made a claim in the 24 months before the Start Date.

Start Date shall then mean the date Your previous policy commenced. This will only apply in respect of the corresponding amount of Monthly Benefit provided by Your previous policy. In the event of a claim You will need to provide Us with a copy of Your previous policy and proof of premium payment that show Your policy was up to date at the Start Date of this insurance.

Section 6 Unemployment cover

This Section only applies if Your schedule shows You have selected either Unemployment cover or Disability and Unemployment cover

What We will cover

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 30 day Waiting Period

If You become Unemployed and cannot Work for at least 60 days in a row, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 61st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 60 day Waiting Period

If You become Unemployed and cannot Work for at least 90 days in a row, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 91st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 90 day Waiting Period

If You become Unemployed and cannot Work for at least 120 days in a row, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 121st day.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 120 day Waiting Period

If You become Unemployed and cannot Work for at least 150 days in a row, a Monthly Benefit will become payable on the 151st day.

We will continue to pay Monthly Benefit for each further full Month of Your Unemployment until:

- You return to Work;
- We have paid the Maximum Monthly Benefits; or
- cover ends as described in Section 9;

whichever happens first.

For example

Customer A has selected a 90 days Waiting Period with a monthly benefit of £300, and was unemployed for 220 days. The first 90 days are not covered. They then need to be off work for a further 30 days in order to claim benefit for that month, and a further 30 days each month to claim each following months benefit. They would receive benefits for the four whole months they were off work, totalling £1,200. They would not receive benefit for the remaining ten days.

We will not classify as Unemployment any period for which You receive payment instead of working Your notice (i.e. payment in lieu of notice). After this period, You then have to be Unemployed for the Waiting Period before You will be able to make a claim.

If there are less than three consecutive months of Employment between two periods of Unemployment, We will classify those two periods as one continuous period of Unemployment and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. We will not pay Benefit for the time You were working between the two periods. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

For example

Customer B selected a policy with a maximum of 12 monthly benefits. They have received two monthly benefits and returned to work, but within three months they become unemployed again. This is treated as a continuation of the previous claim. They will not have to go through the waiting period before benefits become payable again. As they have already received two monthly benefits for the earlier period, the maximum payable for the second period will be ten monthly benefits.

If a period of Unemployment is immediately followed by a period of Disability or Caring or a period of Disability or Caring is immediately followed by a period of Unemployment, We will classify these two periods as one continuous claim and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

After the Maximum Monthly Benefits have been paid for any period of Unemployment or Caring, further claims for Unemployment or Caring will only be considered if there has first been six consecutive months Employment.

You cannot claim for Disability and Unemployment or Caring at the same time.

If during a claim for Unemployment You take Temporary Work, Your claim will be suspended for the period of Temporary Work.

If You qualify for an Unemployment claim but continue to work part-time You will be entitled to a proportion of Your Monthly Benefit. We work this out according to the proportions of Your average gross income received from all jobs before Your claim.

What We will not cover

This policy does not cover any period of Unemployment:

- i) which occurred before the Start Date;
- ii) which you receive notification of, or which commences, within 120 days after the Start Date;
- iii) if You were not in Employment for six consecutive months prior to Your first Unemployment claim;
- iv) which You knew to be impending at the Start Date, whether or not You had received official notice;
- v) which arises from any programme of job losses, any departmental or company restructure, or merger with another company, announced by Your employer before the Start Date or within 120 days after the Start Date;
- vi) if You are a Contract Worker, which results from the natural expiry of a fixed-term contract unless:
 - immediately prior to Your claim, You were Employed on an annual contract which has been renewed at least once;
 - immediately prior to Your claim, You have been Employed on a contract with the same employer for a period of 24 months; or
 - immediately prior to the commencement of Your fixed-term contract, You were Employed on a permanent basis by the same employer.(This exclusion will not be applied if You are Self-Employed.);
- vii) if You are a Contract Worker and Your contract is terminated early, any period of Unemployment beyond the date Your contract would have otherwise naturally expired;
- viii) which results from You voluntarily leaving Your Employment unless as a result of constructive dismissal;
- ix) due to a normal or seasonal occurrence or which is a regular feature of Your Employment;
- x) after a period of casual, temporary or occasional work;
- xi) which results from misconduct leading to Your dismissal;
- xii) as a result of You being detained in prison under the direction of a court of law. (This exclusion will not apply if You are later acquitted.);

- xiii) resulting from any Chronic Condition from which You knowingly suffered on or before the Start Date;
- xiv) as a result of any medical condition for which treatment had been given or diagnosis had been made or investigations commenced during the 12 months immediately before the Start Date and which comes back within 24 months after the Start Date. (This exclusion will not be applied after 24 months have passed without treatment or advice for that medical condition.);
- xv) which is a result of intentional self-inflicted injuries;
- xvi) which is a result of taking alcohol or drugs, (unless they are taken under the direction of a Doctor and are not for the treatment of drug addiction); or
- xvii) arising from war (whether declared or not), military duty in peacekeeping operations outside the United Kingdom, invasion, riot as an active participant, revolution or any similar event.

For the purposes of exclusions ii) and v) above, the 120 day initial exclusion period for Unemployment cover will be waived, if You:

- for the 6 continuous months immediately before the Start Date;
- held a policy with another insurer providing Unemployment cover, that was replaced by this policy; and
- under which You had not made a claim in the 24 months before the Start Date.

Start Date shall then mean the date Your previous policy commenced. This will only apply in respect of the corresponding amount of Monthly Benefit provided by Your previous policy. In the event of a claim You will need to provide Us with a copy of Your previous policy and proof of premium payment that show Your policy was up to date at the Start Date of this insurance.

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 90 day Waiting Period

If Your schedule shows You have selected a 120 day Waiting Period

We will continue to pay Monthly Benefit for each further full Month You are a Carer until:

- You cease to be a Carer;
 - We have paid the Maximum Monthly Benefits; or
 - cover ends as described in Section 9;

whichever happens first.

If there are less than three consecutive months of Employment between two periods of Caring, We will classify those two periods as one continuous period of Caring and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. We will not pay Benefit for the time You were working between the two periods. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

If a period of Caring is immediately followed by a period of Disability or Unemployment or a period of Disability or Unemployment is immediately followed by a period of Caring, We will classify these two periods as one continuous claim and pay up to an aggregate of the Maximum Monthly Benefits in total. Only one Waiting Period will be applied.

After the Maximum Monthly Benefits have been paid for any period of Caring or Unemployment, further claims for Caring or Unemployment will only be considered if there has first been six consecutive months Employment.

You cannot claim for Disability and Unemployment or for Caring at the same time.

What We will not cover

This policy does not cover any period of being a Carer:

- i) if, at the Start Date We reasonably believe You were aware of the need, or likely need at any time in the future, for a member of Your Immediate Family to require a Carer;

- iv) arising from war (whether declared or not), invasion, riot as an active participant, revolution or any similar event.

For the purposes of exclusions ii) above, the 120 day initial exclusion period for Carer cover will be waived, if You:

- for the 6 continuous months immediately before the Start Date;
- held a policy with another insurer providing Carer cover, that was replaced by this policy; and
- under which You had not made a claim in the 24 months before the Start Date.

Start Date shall then mean the date Your previous policy commenced. This will only apply in respect of the corresponding amount of Monthly Benefit provided by Your previous policy. In the event of a claim You will need to provide Us with a copy of Your previous policy and proof of premium payment that show Your policy was up to date at the Start Date of this insurance.

Other Insurances

We may ask You to provide details of other income, repayment or payment protection insurance policies under which You may also be claiming disability, unemployment or carer benefits. In these circumstances the Monthly Benefit will be reduced so that the total benefits paid, under all such insurances do not exceed 50% of Your Gross Monthly Income. You will receive a proportionate refund of premium.
